Francesc Zamora Mola

Ilion Apartment

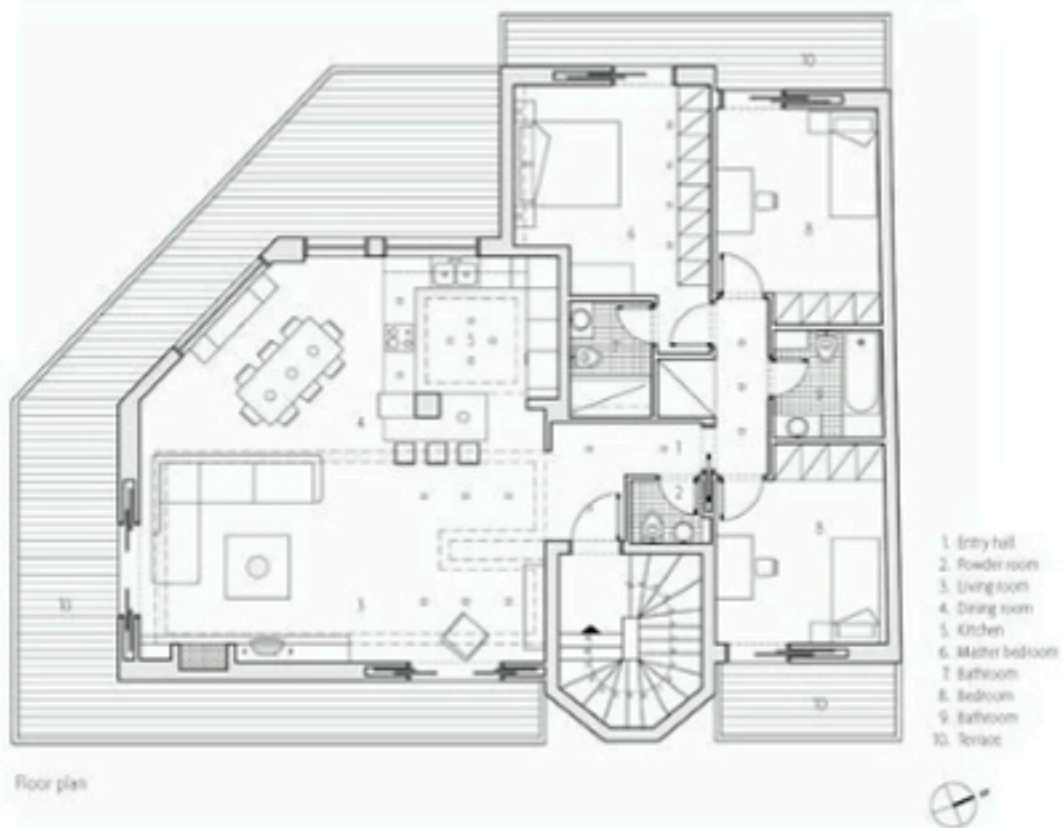

Architect: Lkm architects

Location: Athens, Greece

Year of construction: 2009

Photography: Louisa Nikolaidou

The basic concept of the project consisted of the design of a new, separate apartment as an addition to a 1990s single-story house to accommodate a family with two children. The architects experimented with materials and space to create the formal, yet accommodating, design.

Floor plan

Luminosity and versatility are the prime objectives of this project, where homogeneity is interrupted by few design features.
